How much should I pay a bandit sign hanger?

Typically $1-2 per sign depending on how many you're paying to have put up, and how good of work the hanger has done for you previously. It can be challenging to find genuinely good reliable people in any business, and sign hangers are no exception. If they constantly do a good job and you're getting deals for your signs, increase the pay rate per sign or give them an occasional bonus whenever you get a big payday.
